

Kings Mills Center Deerfield Township, Warren County, Ohio

Kings Mills Center is a 52 acre development located at the interchange of I-71 and Kings Mills Road. This interchange also serves Kings Island Amusement Park and the new Great Wolf Lodge which attract over 4 million visitors per year. This area, including the adjacent City of Mason, has experienced some of the fastest population growth rates in the entire state for the last 20+ years. The property is zoned for retail use and is planned to include hotels and restaurants.

